

Petal Problems

Jesus told a parable about seeds. In it, he said that those whose seeds fell on good soil were different. How were they different? Starting at the star, read every other petal to find the answer. When you get back to the beginning, keep going: there's more to the message! The first letter will be the last letter too!

Petal Problems Solution

Jesus told a parable about seeds. In it, he said that those whose seeds fell on good soil were different. How were they different? Starting at the star, read every other petal to find the answer. When you get back to the beginning, keep going: there's more to the message! The first letter will be the last letter too!

